To our valued clients:

Like many of you, we are concerned about the COVID-19 virus and making efforts to protect the health of our teammates and customers while taking care of business needs.

Our free seminar program includes upcoming dates in Cleveland OH, Sun Prairie WI, and Omaha NE. We have rescheduled the Ohio event to 10/15/20. The WI and NE events will likely move to the fall, dates to be determined. We encourage you to sign up if interested, and will keep you updated on the changes.

If you will be attending our seminars or upcoming trade shows, we suggest waiting until just prior to the event to book any non-refundable travel. Our online tools and videos at www.trachte.com offer clients an excellent collection of self-storage education without the need to travel, and our sales staff remains available to assist you via phone or email.

Both the Self-Storage Association conference in San Antonio and the Inside Self Storage Expo in Las Vegas have been postponed by their respective organizers.

Thank you,
